

International School Award- A Report

Veda Vyasa DAV Public School, Vikaspuri has been accredited with the British Council International Award 2012-15

The object was to nurture global citizens and provide unique educational experience through interactions, exchange of mails, visits to embassies, video conferencing etc. with the basic premise the school undertook a wide array of activities, events and projects.

Project Impressionism enabled the Senior students appreciate unique and rebellious art work of French artists developed during the period of French revolution.

The students interacted with Kowloon Junior school Hong Kong in order to share rich and diverse experience on Herbs and spices used in their country. Think Quest Oracle Educational Foundation was an online project analyzing the similarities and contrast in culture and other countries like U.K. USA, Australia, Srilanka, Egypt, Indonesia, Malaysia, Romania, China, Germany and Brazil.

Project Rudollor enabled the students to understand the Currency systems of India and USA.

The study of monuments of Saarc Nations helped students to gain knowledge about monuments existing in SAARC countries. Srilanka, Bhutan, Bangladesh and Afghanistan were some of the countries explored for the project.

G-3 summit enabled students to understand the significance and meaning of various international groups eg. SAARC. G20, G7, Brics etc.

Intach online projects encouraged creative minds to make short educational films. It also provided the children to understand the International cultural Heritage. The Intach club of the school undertook the FILM IT India Project which is a multicultural project that aims at nurturing cultural understanding care and concern amongst school children

Bentley International competition of Architecture made students of DAV-Vikas puri compete with Global Tech Minds.

The various projects undertaken provided a unique educational experience to students and helped them comprehend the inter connected world. The students exchanged ideas with those in partner schools, thus enabling students acquire a scientific analytical and critical temper strengthening mutual understanding through exchange of e-mails, Video conferencing, embassy visits etc.,. The various projects and events enabled students to look ahead and build a harmonious world and blaze new trails of understanding and brotherhood.

The globe programme (International Environmental Science and Education Program (On line program) was a hands on International environmental Science and educational program. Disaster Management Case study of Disaster preparedness in Japan and India was yet another innovative project undertaken by the school. Scrap files were prepared by students on Disaster management covering various man made and natural disasters including earthquake fire, cyclones with recent example of India and Japan.